Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The family of Levi Baldwin immigrated to Canada from Connecticut, USA, in 1799. They settled in Barnston Township where he was a farmer. Levi Baldwin (d. 1843) was first married to Experience Goff (d. 1815) and, second, to Abigail Mills (d. 1830). The children by his first marriage were: Huldah, Lotes, Richard, Deborah and Patience. The children by his second marriage were: Elizabeth, John Percival and Huldah. John Percival Baldwin married Jeanette Baker and they settled near the outlet of Lake Lyster. He became a very successful businessman, having established a sawmill on the Lake. John's youngest son was Willis Keith (W. K.) Baldwin, who married Lill Ferrin from Holland, Vermont. In his lifetime, W. K. was well-regarded and successful in business as well as politics. While many of the descendants of W. K. and Lill have left, a number still remain in Baldwin's Mills and in the Townships.

The family of Hezekiah May (1775-1857) immigrated to Canada from Vermont, USA, in 1806. He settled in Stanstead Township where he was a farmer. Hezekiah was married to Sarah (Sally) Hayes (1784-1871) and they had eleven children together: Electa, Sylvester, Hannah, Willard, Lyman, Lorenzo, Ruby, Louisa, James, Mary Ann and Maria. Sylvester May moved from Stanstead Township to Barnston Township, near Lake Lyster. Sylvester's oldest son, Darius, also a farmer, married Emma Stevens. One of their daughters, Ruth, married Harold Baldwin, which is how the Baldwins and Mays are related.

Custodial history

The documents were passed down through members of the Baldwin and May families. Some of the documents were kept by Elvyn M. Baldwin, while others remained in the Baldwin family home until they were divided amongst members of the Baldwin family by Pinnacle Holdings around the year 2000. Elvyn's children donated their documents to the ETRC following his death. David Baldwin and Carolyn Rowell donated their documents to the ETRC in 2022.

Scope and content

The fonds contains primary source information on the family life; social, religious and economic activities; and education of various members of the Baldwin family, May family and other relatives and friends during the 18th to 21st centuries. It also contains historical information on the Stanstead County and Barnston Township areas, as well as genealogy. The majority of the records were produced in the Eastern Townships, many come from the New England states as well as across Canada and worldwide. It consists primarily of personal and business correspondence, postcards and photographs, maps, historical notes and family history. The fonds is comprised of the following series: Baldwin family ([1783 - photocopied ca. 1999]-2005), May family (1863-[1988, photocopied 2022]), Other Correspondence ([18--]-1970), Genealogy (1832-1999), Photographs ([185-?]-1995), Subject Files and Historical Research (1842-2002), Ferrin Family (1811-1974), Mead Family (1832-1853, 1917, [1934-1948?]), and Stevens Family (1910-1961).

Physical description: 4 textual records, 3 postcards.

Language of the material:

Note [generalNote]: Mrs. F.F. Haskell ("Aunt Ria") is probably Asenath Maria (née Smith) Haskell, wife of Francis Fenelon Haskell of Massachusetts. Francis and Asenath are the parents of Eli Perry Haskell, possibly the E. Perry Haskell whose correspondence is found in P173/003.07.

Eli Perry Haskell was married to Mary Washburn (née Thomas) Haskell. Source: <https://ancestors.familysearch.org/en/LT98-VCJ/eli-perry-haskell-1885>.

Francis Fenelon Haskell was brother to Sarah (née Haskell) Ferrin. Sarah was the second wife of Martin C. Ferrin, making her stepmother to Lill Ferrin Baldwin. Source: <https://www.familysearch.org/tree/person/details/KZCY-J3J>.

Mrs. F.F. Haskell (née Asenath Maria Smith) would therefore be Lill's aunt by marriage, through Lill's stepmother, Sarah Haskell Ferrin.
